

The State of Tennessee requires Reformed Theological Seminary to inform you that credits earned at Reformed Theological Seminary may not transfer to another educational institution. Credits earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by Reformed Theological Seminary (RTS). You should obtain confirmation that RTS will accept any credits you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer credits earned at RTS to determine if such institutions will accept credits earned at RTS prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement. The ability to transfer credits from RTS to another educational institution may be very limited. Your credits may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at RTS if you enroll in another educational institution. You should never assume that credits will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are advised to make certain that you know the transfer of credit policy of RTS and of any other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the credits earned at RTS before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement.

By my signature below I understand the policy set forth in the paragraph above.
